Poor quality graphics. No scalability. It's a move-y shooty VR experience, which is good. But the weapons feel atrocious. There are just far better stuff on the market than this.. No Left-Handed mode = Unplayable. Also, enemies don't react when hit. Bullets don't land where red dot is pointing on the assault rifle. Terrible. Instant refund for me.. this game is so lame i cant even describe it i cant beleave even steam would sell it they should pay me to play it
